

Isabelle Pateer
Empty Box, Doel, Belgium, 2010
View Today's Flak Photo »

The Flak Photo Collection

Are you promoting a photography project? Submit your work for consideration of The Collection, Flak Photo's ever-expanding index of 21st century image-makers. Featuring online community contributions, Monday through Friday. Learn how you can contribute »

STORIES
FRESH: The Wall / The Page / The Internet
A collaboration with Klompching Gallery

MOTION
Valley of Angels
Video by Simone Donati with Alessandro Daquino

FEATURES
Shelby Lee Adams — Salt & Truth
A conversation with Catherine Fdelman

NEWS
Looking at the Land — 21st Century American Views
A collaboration with The Museum of Art, Rhode Island School of Design

THE COLLECTION

Isabelle Pateer

Empty Box, Doel, Belgium, 2010
From the Unsettled (2007 - 2012) series
Website - IsabellePateer.com

Isabelle Pateer (b. 1980, The Netherlands) is a fine art documentary photographer based in Antwerp, Belgium. Her Unsettled series, a long-term project that questions the worldwide phenomenon of industrial expansions and its consequences, was awarded, published and exhibited internationally with a project grant from the Dutch 'Anna Cornelis Foundation in 2010. A book publication of Unsettled is scheduled for winter 2012 - 2013.

Posted on Tuesday, September 4, 2012.

SHARE THIS PHOTO

@FlakPhoto Tweets:
Five questions to Matt Johnston of The @PhotobookClub @martin\_brink